PRETTY WEDDINGS | WILL PROTECT IN PETERSBURG

Miss Katherine M. Rahily the Bride of John N. Pearman.

HANDSOME RECEPTION

Rural Free Delivery Mail Route Established in Chesterfield, With A. J. Tucker Carrier.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., Jan. 24.-A pretty early morning wedding took place at St. Joseph's Catholic Church at 7 o'clock this morning when Miss Katharine M. Rahlly became the bride of Mr. John N. Pearman. The bridal party cutered the church during the celebration of the early mass by Rev. Father Wilson, of Newport News, who was formerly in charge of the church. Rev. Father O'Farrell performed the ceremony in the presonce of many relatives and friends of the hridal couple.

Miss Elizabeth Madeline Collins, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Frank J. Duggan, of New York, was best man.

The wedding music was beautifully played by Miss Annie Cook, and the church was most tastefully decorated with paints and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearman left on a morning train for a northern tour, including New York, Philadelphia and Washing-and Mrs. C. C. Roatteap.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GOSHEN, VA., Jan. 21.—Mr. and Mrs.
C. C. Roadcap, of Goshen, Va., celebrated their golden wedding last Wednesday. A large gathering of relatives and friends was present. The large pariors were artistically decorated, the color scheme heing admirably appropriate, gold and green ing admirably appropriate, gold and green predominating, relieved by touches of white and Mrs. Readcap received their friends under an arch of evergreens, upon which appeared the dates, 1835 and 1905, the letter in figures of gold. They were gracefully assisted by Mr. and Mrs. S. G. floadcap, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Shaw and Mr. H. S. Roadcap, of Goshen; Mrs. E. L. Roadcap, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Reichmod.

E. M. Roadcap, and Miss Susie Roadcap, of Richmod.

After the aged couple had received the hearty constraintions and well wishes of their many friends, the party repaired to the punch on the punch which was presided over by Misses Stephie Lee Roadcap, of Raphine, and Miss Nottle Bowles, of Clifton Forge. Here the party dynak to the health of the couple and wished them many more years of happiness. The bowl and ladle used on this occasion have been the possessions of the family for more than a century. Later a dainty control was served in the spacious didfing room. The tabes were tastefully decorated with chrysinthemums and roses, the color scheme being stricty observed.

Many handsome presents were received, a purse of gold being given by the family. These were displayed upon a table above which was suspended a large golden horsesfity. Groat sociability marked the evening.

candles so arranged as to form the figures fifty.

Great sociability marked the evening, and as the guests departed they were handed white souven'r boxes which were filled with wedding cake and engraved in gold, 1855, January 18th, 1996.

Air. Roadcap is the youngest of a family of thirteen children, only two others of whom are still living. He is one of the oldest citizens of this section and has spent his entire life in this vicinity.

Mrs. Roadcap was before her marriage a Miss Bettle Williamson. She came to this county with her parents from Soliand in 1844, and the family settled in Alleghany county. The town of Clifton Forge is built upon the site of the old Williamson estate.

A Surprise Marriage.

A Surprise Marriage.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RONBURY, VA. Jan, 24—A marriage that came as a great surprise to the many friends of the groom in this section was that of Mr. Logan Ellett McMinn, of Rocky Mount, N. C., to Miss Oille Temple Chelton, of Baltimore, Md., which occurred on December 29, 1904, at Towson, Md. The marriage is quite a romantic one, from the fact that Mr. McMinn had not seen Miss Chelton for three years, a lovers' quarrel having separated them at that time. He went to Baltimore to see her Christmas, hoping for a reconcillation, but not dreaming of a marriage so soon, but after meeting they decided to be married at once, and now Mr. McMinn will bring his bride on in a week or two to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McMinn, of Westwood, Va. Mr. McMinn is a brother of Mrs. Temple Southall, of Quinton.

HOMELESS GIRLS

Movement Started to Take Care of Those Who Are, Friendless.

WIDELY COMMENDED

Strong Report 'Made by Subcommittee and Resolutions Are Adopted.

The subcommittee appointed from the State Conference of Charities and Corrections, met in room No. 5 City Hall, office of Mr. George B. Davis, Superintendent of Public Charities yesterday afternoon, and the following report was unanimously adopted:

Much interest was manifested and the secretary of the conference was requested to call a meeting of the executive council Wednesday, February 8th, to take further steps in this important movement ther steps in this important movement and other matters.

The Committee on Charitable and Penal Institutions of the Virginia Conference of Charities and Correction in the prosecution of its work found that in sorder to deal successfully with the problem of distribution among the children it was becessary to find some institution, where incorrighte and degenerate girls might be placed for restraint and training. These cannot be put into institutions for the care of normal children, for the reason that while undertaking to save one degenerate, twenty normal children, by the cvil influence introduced among them, might be ruined.

The chairman of the Committee of Charitable and Penal Institutions, not by direction of the conference, but personally, as superintendent of the institution, of which he is in charge and with the approval of his board of trustees, has been for over a typer studying the question. "What shall we do with our incorrigible children?"

Boys Are All Right.

"Boys Are All Right.

As far as the boys are concerned, to ask this question is to answer it. The Laurel Industrial School, under its present management, is getting into such fine shape that no one need hestiate to commit to it a boy who is drifting toward the criminal classes. But what about the grils that are facing physical and moral ruin? There is no institution in Virginia that specially cares for these unfortunates. Going outside the State you lind a number of them. They divide themselves, at a glance, into two classes—public and private—those owned or fostered by the State and those controlled by private parties. We have gone to the State institutions, placed our case before them, said: "Can you not take our girls," and they have enswered: "No. If we took children from foutside our State, we would soon be crowded and uhable to take those confing to us from our own territory. Besides you are asking our State to pay for the training of Virginia's destitute children. Lot Virgina take care of her own—she is able to do. It.".

There are two classes of private institutions for the care of incorrigible girls—those that take fallen women and little girls and those that deal with children, exclusively.

girls and those that deal with children, exclusively, where the content of the co

Protect the Girls.

Protect the Girls.

The State cares for its boys at the Laurel industrial School at a cost of a fraction over twenty-eight cents per day per boy. The same is true of the colored reformatory.

For the reasons contained in the statements above, and for others too plain to need formati-statement, your committee believes a State reformatory for girls to be an absolute necessity, and, therefore, recommends the adoption of the following by the Executive Council of the State Conference of Charities and Correction:

Resolved, First, That the Executive Council of the Virginia Conference of Charities and Correction appoint a Board of Incorporators, camposed of two from Council of the Virginia Contrelence of Charities and Correction appoint a Board of Incorporators, composed of two from each Congressional District, and the Governor, the Secretary of the Commonwealth and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Second. That this Board of Incorporators be requested to proceed at once to establish a State Reformatory for Girls, to be known as the Virginia Home and Industrial School for Friendless Girls.

Third. That the State Conference of Charities and Correction hereby pledges itself to do all in its power to aid the board in its laudable undertaging.

Fourth. That this meeting hereby expresses its thanks to The Times-Dispatch and other newspapers of the State, and those outside Virginia, that have in their columns commended the movement to establish a State Reformatory for Girls.
